Eastgate News provides a forum for neighborhood & city events, ideas, and interests. We want it to stimulate interest & participation in neighborhood life & promote a sense of community. It is YOUR newsletter, so we would love to hear from you! Please submit contributions to our officers or on our website.

The EGGCA mission is to educate, support and promote a secure, attractive, and inviting residential neighborhood while upholding our values of community volunteerism, organized events, and public engagement.

At the end of the 2015 calendar year, we decided to extend the nominating and electing officers for the next 2 year term.

If you have ideas about what would continue to make Eastgate a great neighborhood, what would bring neighbors together, and how we should continue to move forward, please consider serving your neighborhood as an officer or volunteer.

If you have questions or are interested in being nominated, please contact any of the current officers or board members.

A very festive
THANK YOU
to Kristen and Marcus for once again hosting the Eastgate holiday party! We appreciate you opening your home.
And we appreciate the generosity of Eastgate residents for donating gifts for the children of Nelson Park apartments!

The 2015 annual income tax return is due April 18, 2016.

Around the city in February...

Witness: Black Independent Film / Dreams Are Colder Than Death

Date: February 4, 2016

Location: Wexner Center Film/Video Theater

Hours: Thursday 7-9 p.m.

Admission: $6-$8

Address: 1871 N. High Street, Columbus, 43210

Noted cinematographer Arthur Jafa (Daughters of the Dust, Crooklyn) poses a question in his new essay film, What does it mean to be black in the 21st century? His respondents include filmmaker Charles Burnett, former Black Panther Kathleen Cleaver, writer Fred Moten, and artist Kara Walker. But this is far from a conventional talking heads doc, as the intensity and thoughtfulness of the answers are placed separately against Jafa's evocative and sometimes digressive imagery of modern blackness. We're honored to have Jafa visit the Wex to present his new film, along with other works, and to discuss his innovative perspective on black independent filmmaking.

Lineage Beer School: Beer Sensory Class 1

Date: February 7, 2016

Location: Lineage Brewing

Hours: Sunday noon-2 p.m.

Admission: $25

Address: 2971 N. High Street, Columbus, 43202

Have you ever had a beer that tasted a little off? In this class, we will use lab grade flavor spikes to learn about 5 common beer off flavors and their typical causes. This class is perfect for the beer drinker who wants to elevate his/her tasting knowledge or for the new beer fanatic that wants to improve their palate.

Offstage at the Jazz Academy featuring John Fredo and Ted Louis Levy

Date: February 6, 2016

Location: Jazz Academy

Hours: Saturday 2-3 p.m.

Admission: Free

Address: 769 East Long Street, Columbus, 43203

Smooth crooner John Fredo and award-winning tap dancer Ted Louis Levy share musical and performance insights at Offstage at the Jazz Academy, casual Q&A's with performers presented on JAG's 2015-2016 season. Free and Open to the Public.

Pat Fluellen, EGGCA Treasurer, is starting an initiative to increase volunteerism in our neighborhood. She will be contacting neighbors to find out what their skills and interests are. Contact Pat if you'd like to be a part of this effort!

This project is made possible through the generous contributions of several organizations in support of the Neighborhood Partnership Grants program.
